The Mail Ego

By Terrence O'Flaherty

"I've discovered from watching TV that what I think is funny isn't funny to my husband — and vice versa. What is comedy, anyway?"

Jack Donohue's definition is as good as any: if they laugh, it's a comedy. Too bad about you and your husband. Marriage is a lot easier if you can laugh together.

"What on earth is meant by 'adult' horror movies?"

They're the ones where the monster gets the girl.

"Is Mia Farrow from Australia? Is that her real name? Who were her parents?"

Her name is indeed real and her parentage represents the best of Hollywood's family trees. Her late father, John Farrow, was born in Australia and came to California in the early 30s where he made a name for himself in Hollywood as a director - writer - producer. Her mother, actress Maureen O'Sullivan, was born in Ireland and educated in London and Paris. She was a big movie star in the 30s, appearing in such distinguished films as "David Copperfield," "Anna Karenina" and "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" — but she is best remembered in the role of "Jane" opposite Johnny Weismuller's "Tarzan."

"Were Rowan and Martin ever married?"

No, not to each other, that is. Martin is divorced and lives alone. Rowan was divorced in 1959 and is now remarried to Adriana, a former model, age 26.

"When did Doris Kappelhoff become Doris Day?"

In Cincinnati in the mid-40s. The manager of the night club in which she was appearing liked her singing but advised her that Kappelhoff had to go. He suggested she take her name from the closing song in her act: "Day after Day." Otherwise CBS would now be presenting "The Doris Kappelhoff Show" every Tuesday night — or would it?

"What has become of Diane Varsi — the young actress who retired from films to ponder her personal problems?"

I guess she solved them because she's back at work pondering Hollywood problems like those in her comeback film "Wild In The Streets." Her first TV role in five years will be that of a psychotic criminal on NBC's new series "My Friend Tony" who blinds her boy friends by throwing acid in their faces. Looks as if she'll be due for another

"Why doesn't television present more of the great living musicians and composers? The Horowitz concert last month was wonderful — but why forget the others?"

The non-commercial, educational station in your area does a better job with music. Commercial TV is primarily a sales medium and to sell effectively, it must reach the largest number of people per dollar spent. Although the Horowitz audience was counted in the millions — twenty times more than could be crowded into all the concert halls and theaters on earth — it was small by "Bonanza" standards. Only an "image" sponsor interested in reaching a quality audience — like General Telephone and Electronics — would be interested.

"Now that Andy Griffith has left his regular TV show will he get a new series?"

Not until he gets bored. He is now preparing to tape a musical special with Ernie Ford and Don Knotts to be televised Feb. 20 on CBS.

Car Theft Prevented By Police

Three area youths attempting to steal a new car from Butler Buick, 18800 Hawthorne Blvd., were apprehended by Torrance police early Saturday.

A witness said he observed the three trying to break through a chain link gate with the car at 1:20 a.m. and summoned police. Charged with burglary, grand theft, and car theft were Jesse Rivera, 18, of Lawndale, and two 17-year-old boys.

Police said the stolen car contained a television set, many tools, and coins from vending machines, apparently taken from the offices and shop of the car lot.
